Company Profile

Young Artists Management is a new Dublin based talent agency, specialising in children and young adults. We represent both newcoming and established Actors, Models and Voice-Overs aged 0-25 years.

At Young Artists, we endeavour to reach out and discover new talent, rather than simply waiting for it to walk through the door. We believe in quality, rather than quantity and try to ensure that each of our clients has something unique to offer.

We supply talent from babies, toddlers and teenagers up to young adults for Film, Theatre, Television, Radio, Print, Commercials and Special Events.

Highlights 2005

We have had a wonderful first year and would like to congratulate everyone who has been cast in a production. Here are a few of the highlights from 2005...

Mace Commercials

CILLIAN O'BREACHAIN and EMMA WEST play the voices of two characters in a new series of animated 'Mace' commercials produced by academy award nominated animation studio Brown Bag Films. Cillian and Emma play brother and sister in an animated family known as "The Macey's". The commercials are due to continue screening over the next three years.

RTE Premiership PROMOTION

KARL O'DWYER stars in the RTE promotional campaign for the Premiership which was screened on RTE One and RTE Two in the summer of 2005. The piece is set in the 1900's and designed to replicate a silent film of the era. Karl plays a young boy dressed in period clothing who discovers a mysterious periscope allowing him to escape the monotony of his world and witness stunning, colourful images of famous footballers playing in the Premiership.

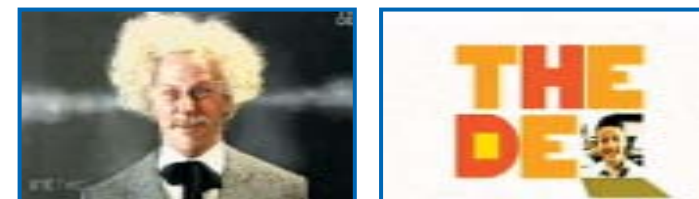

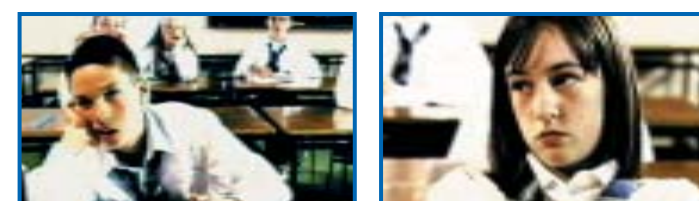

'The Den' Cinema Campaign

RTE have recently launched a cinema campaign to re-launch their Children's Channel 'The Den' featuring CATHAL KERINS, DAVID O'CONNOR, RACHEL O'LEARY, SHANE O'CONNOR, TERENCE KELLY and GILLIAN McGRANE.

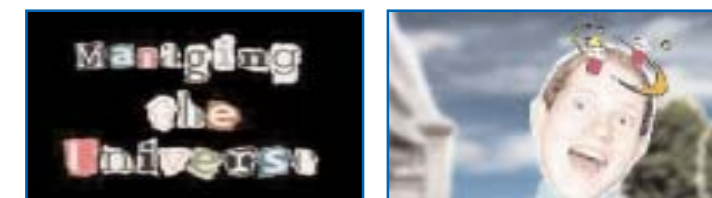

The first installment of the campaign hit Irish cinema screens towards the end of 2005 and stars newcomer Cathal Kerins (13). The scene is set in your typical Irish classroom full of bored kids being lectured to by a very boring teacher, who is trying to explain the basic concept of laughter, but in what has to be the most boring way possible. As the students reach their breaking point and can't listen to any more, one of them pushes the "Adult Free Zone" button on his laptop. Immediately, sparks fly out of the button and eventually cause formula to fly off the blackboard and all around the room. Eventually it flies into the teachers ears and leaves him in a very dazed state. The piece ends as Cathal Kerins (the student who pushed the button) smiles and says "The Den - it's just fun!" while the teacher looks very confused, tired and a bit lost!

There are two more installments of 'The Den' cinema campaign to be released. The campaign is due to run for four months in Irish cinemas and will continue screening on RTE One and Two.

'Managing The Universe'

SEAN CARROLL, PAUL O'BRIEN, NAOMI O'LEARY and SHONAGH CROSBIE feature in Monster Animation's "Managing The Universe" (a 30 episode series centered on the theme of teenagers) which runs from September 2005 until May 2006. "Managing The Universe" can be seen on RTE 2 during TTV at 7.00pm each Tuesday (with repeats on Sunday).

'True Christmas' by Dustin the Turkey MUSIC VIDEO

ANNA HETHERTON features in the music video for the Christmas single "True Christmas" sung by Dustin the Turkey. The music video was produced by Double Z Productions and was screened on national television in December 2005.

CrimeCall Reconstructs

ORINNE McGUINNESS appears on RTE's CrimeCall in a reconstruction where she plays the daughter of a murdered Irish woman. The reconstruction was produced by Coco Television for RTE.

European Union EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMME

PHILIPPA MANGAN and LIZ McCAULEY play the voices for two animated characters which are featured in an educational programme for the European Union by academy award nominated animation studio Brown Bag Films.

'The Fortunestown Kid' (BBC RADIO DRAMA)

MICHAEL RAWLEY plays the character of "Liam" in 'The Fortunestown Kid' an afternoon play written by Dermot Bolger which is due to be broadcast on BBC Radio 4 in February 2006.
